SMITH, ELDER & CO.'S NEW BOOKS.

UNDER THE SANCTION OF HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN.
Now ready, demy 8vo, 18s. the First Volume of the LIFE of HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS the PRINCE CONSORT. By THEODORE MARTIN. Illustrated with Portraits and Views.

NEW NOVELS AT ALL THE LIBRARIES.
A STORY of THREE SISTERS. By CECIL MAXWELL. 2 vols.

WYNCOTE. By Mrs. THOMAS ERKINE, Author of "Marjory." 2 vols.

"An excellent story, and another proof, if any were needed, that it is possible to form a very interesting plot out of the events of every-day life."—Times.
"This is a pretty novel, and one likely to prove attractive. . . . We recommend it as a pleasant readable book."—John Bull.
"A charming novel, the plot being intelligent and cleverly worked out—an excellent story."—Court Journal.

FAR FROM the MADDING CROWD. By THOMAS HARDY. 2 vols. with 12 Illustrations, 21s.

"Mr. Hardy is, perhaps, the most vigorous of all the novelists who have appeared during the last few years. His powers of description, his skill in devising 'situations,' his quaint humour, secure him a high place among novelists of any age."—Athenaeum.
"This last work of Mr. Hardy at once lifts his name above the crowd, and gives him a position among the eminent few. . . . The drama in Mr. Hardy's novels is in no sense a warfare of opinion or ideas; it is a warfare of persons moved by the primeval motives of love and jealousy. It is in following the dark ways of tragic passion that Mr. Hardy's power makes itself unquestionably felt. 'Far from the Madding Crowd' is no ordinary novel."—Examiner.

BOOKS SUITABLE FOR PRESENTS.

"For those who would value a Christmas gift not by the money that was given for it, but by the pleasure that it gives, we could scarcely wish a more charming present than this book of Miss Thackeray's."—Saturday Review.

BLUEBEARD'S KEYS, and other Stories. By Miss THACKERAY. Large crown 8vo, 10s. 6d.

"Miss Thackeray has shown in her own graceful manner how the fairy tales which held small boys and girls spell-bound and breathless can be clothed upon with incidents and touches of our modern every-day life. Who but Miss Thackeray could have touched our dear old friends without spoiling their charms and interest? But with how much besides does Miss Thackeray's free and flowing pen enrich the old story."—Times, Dec. 5.
"Tales over which Miss Thackeray has cast the golden cloud of her soft imagination. No one paints a scene of sweet awe so vividly as she; no one gives the thrilling surprises of life with a truer touch."—Spectator, Dec. 12.

"These stories possess the subtle charm which is inseparable from Miss Thackeray's writings."—Standard.
"These stories are adapted with much skill, are full of interest, and exquisitely compact."—Examiner.
"Delicately and delicately told little stories."—Athenaeum.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING.

EPPS'S COCOA.
BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—See article in the Civil Service Gazette.

NOTES AND BIBLIOGRAPHY.

BALLANTINE, TINDALL & Cox, King William Street, Strand.

THE NEW QUARTERLY MAGAZINE

for January will contain a Novel, entitled

"THE MAD WILLOUGHBY," by MRS. LYNN LINTON, and a Tale, by MR. JOHN DANGERFIELD, entitled, "A TRAGEDY QUEEN." Both stories are complete.

London: WARD, LOCK & TYLER, Warwick House, Paternoster Row.

In crown 8vo, with 19 quaint woodcut illustrations, bound in antique style, or in paper boards for binding, price 7s. 6d. A few copies on Large Paper have been printed, price 21s. each.

The Pilgrim's Progress.

As originally published by John Bunyan.

Being a Fac-simile Reproduction of the first Edition.

This Edition of the Pilgrim's Progress is a Line for Line Reprint in fac-simile of the Éditio Princeps, published in 1678, of which only one copy is known to exist at the present time.

The special characteristics of the first edition are carefully preserved; the colloquial language, quaint spelling, and curious side-notes, the peculiar forms and mixtures of types, the irregular use of capitals and italics are faithfully reproduced, as well as the grotesque illustrations found in the early Editions, thus enabling the modern reader to realise the rude form in which John Bunyan put his immortal allegory before those of his own day.

Prospectuses and Specimen Pages will be sent on application to the publisher.

JULES VERNE'S WONDERFUL BOOKS.

"M. Verne exaggerates scientific possibilities into romance in a way so natural and charming that even sober men and women are fascinated by his extravagance."—British Quarterly Review.

"These tales are very popular in France; and as the love of the marvellous is no stronger in French than in English boys, they will no doubt be well appreciated by the latter, especially as they are full of pictures."—Times.

TWO NEW BOOKS BY VERNE.

A FLOATING CITY and the BLOCKADE

RUNNERS. By JULES VERNE. Square crown 8vo, containing many very fine Full-Page Illustrations, cloth, gilt edges, 7s. 6d. [Just out.]

men and Three Russians in South Africa. By JULES VERNE. Translated from the French. Royal 16mo., with numerous Illustrations, cloth extra, gilt edges, 7s. 6d.

"This capital translation of M. Verne's last wild and amusing story is, like all those by the same author, delightfully extravagant, and full of entertaining improbabilities."—Morning Post.

THE FUR COUNTRY. By JULES VERNE.

Crown 8vo, with upwards of 60 Illustrations, cloth extra, price 10s. 6d.

"The Fur Country" will not disappoint them; we can promise them breathless excitement, wonders, and dangers, and escapes."—Athenæum.

From the EARTH to the MOON, and a TRIP

ROUND IT. Crown 8vo, with numerous Illustrations, cloth, gilt edges, 10s. 6d.

In reviewing the two preceding books, the British Quarterly Review said:—"The books are both of them superb in their exciting cleverness and charm. Among the boys' books of the year they are so far first that the rest are nowhere."

AROUND the WORLD in EIGHTY DAYS.

By JULES VERNE. Square crown 8vo, with numerous Illustrations, 7s. 6d.

"We hardly know what to say of this most extraordinary book. How much of it is truth and how much fiction it is difficult to determine. One thing we may assure our readers, that it is not only interesting, but fascinating; not only that, it is interesting, from beginning to end, as the last quarter stretch of the Derby."—Comptons.

FIVE WEEKS in a BALLOON. By JULES

VERNE. New Edition. Square crown 8vo, with numerous Illustrations, printed on toned paper, and uniformly with "Around the World," &c., 7s. 6d.

SIR SAMUEL BAKER'S "ISMAILIA."

A NARRATIVE of the EXPEDITION to CENTRAL AFRICA for the SUPPRESSION of the SLAVE TRADE,

ORGANISED BY ISMAIL, KHEDEVE OF EGYPT.

TIMES.—"A book which will be read with very great interest, and if the feelings excited by the record are not always those of unmitigated approval, we cannot hesitate to give the fullest praise to the energy, determination, and resource evinced by the leader of the expedition. .... There are most interesting sketches of social life, manners, and customs scattered through these pages; and though the author tells us that he sought to confine his narrative to the object of the expedition, there are numerous anecdotes of sporting adventures which would make a most pleasant little volume by themselves."

STANDARD.—"It is certain that Sir Samuel's narrative of his wanderings contains much valuable information, not only of a geographical nature, but also with regard to the character of the Africans."

GLOBE.—"The author never wrote more vividly, or enabled his readers to realise more exactly, the scenes and incidents he describes. He is one of the very few travellers who can pass through thrilling adventures, and afterwards give appropriate form to the materials they have amassed. We follow him step by step in his journeyings, and never once find him tedious. .... Only by reading the book itself can any one obtain an adequate idea of the extraordinary adventures detailed."

MORNING POST.—"The account of his efforts, of difficulties and dangers undergone and surmounted, reads more like a romance than like the actual experiences of, comparatively speaking, a more hardy of men. Sir Samuel Baker was evidently the right man in the right place. .... The style of the narrative is quite characteristic of the practical nature of the man; it is straight to the point, and free from useless reiteration. The descriptions are never diffuse, yet bright and comprehensive, the whole work being incomparably more entertaining than books of African travel usually are. .... The narrative abounds in descriptive sketches and anecdotes well and pleasantly told. The book is profusely illustrated, and the clear and admirable maps prefixed to each volume render it an easy task for the reader to follow the track of the expedition."

PALL MALL GAZETTE.—"We cannot praise it higher than by saying it is quite unlike most books of African travel. In other words, it is well written, and full of remarkable adventures. .... The account of the retreat is masterly, and the battles are described with considerable spirit."

ATHENÆUM.—"This book will add to Sir Samuel Baker's fame. .... Once more he comes before his fellow-countrymen as an explorer, a man of keen intelligence, a sportsman, and one who can do and dare, suffer and wait, and under every circumstance prove himself to be a thorough Englishman. As such a man, we have hitherto been proud of him, and have gloried in his geographical discoveries. But in the present work, especially in the latter portion of it, the heart of the reader is touched as the author, in his previous works, never touched it before."

MR. W. BLACK'S NEW BOOK.

The MAID of KILLEENA; and other Stories. By

WILLIAM BLACK, Author of "A Princess of Thule," &c. Crown 8vo, 10s. 6d. [This day.]

"A very pretty and graceful little story of those Hebrides which the author knows and loves so well. .... The book is one which may be read with much enjoyment."—Graphic.

"A delightful collection of stories."—Examiner.

"It was with something akin to this joy that we drew our chair closer to the fire as the weary work of the novel-critic gave place to the smile of satisfaction and pleasure, when, in the very first page of our book, we discovered that we had come again to those Western Isles in the quiet summer sea in the far North, and to those simple people amidst whose loving allegiance the Princess of Thule—Shells, held her modest court. .... We shall not be satisfied till 'The Maid of Killeena' rests on our shelves."—Spectator.
